Simplify Compliance

SEPTEMBER Compliance Check: Disclosures and Notices for Group Health Plans

Federal law imposes various disclosure and notice requirements upon group health plans of all sizes and funding methods. The rules regarding the form and manner of notices, the timing of the distributions, and the necessary recipients can be a challenge to navigate. This webinar will guide employer-sponsors through the mandated notices and provide practical tips for compliance.

NOVEMBER ACA Reporting: A Holistic Review for ALEs and Sponsors of Self-Insured Plans

With preparations underway for another year of ACA reporting, a holistic review of the process will be advantageous for employers. The focus of this webinar will not be on the detailed instructions for completing the forms but will instead adopt a broader view of the reporting process and its functions, including a summary of how state reporting requirements coincide with the federal framework, and an analysis of IRS enforcement actions and related penalties.

DECEMBER HR Trends and Considerations for 2023

2022 was a year of transition as businesses started to return to normal, or at least the new version of normal. With the prospect of continuing higher inflation, higher interest rates and a slowing economy, human resources professionals and business leaders will be required to navigate a challenging business landscape, expanded regulatory requirements and evolving employee expectations and priorities. This webinar will address some trends in human resources and serve as a refresher on core HR requirements to consider in 2023.
